REPORT ON ANNUAL SPORTS COMPETITION 2022

Annual Sports Day: Every Academic Institute organizes the annual sports day. It has great importance in the life of a student. Along with great fun, it is also a good learning experience. Apart from games and sports, students learn to have a sporting spirit also. It is quite evident that every game will have losers and winners. While winners get motivated to work even harder, losers learn to take defeat in the right spirit. Thus, having a sports day in school is the event that everybody looks forward to.

Sports day is also important as it instigates the significance of physical exercise in the student. It is important for a student to play some sport. Playing a sport regularly keeps children fit forever. Physical activities also increase metabolic activities which are good for our health. The date of the annual sports day is announced much in advance for students to have ample time to practice. There are various games that are played and several events take place.

on 2nd September 2022, SDMGMC also organized its annual sports day. The preparations for this day started weeks before. Most students gave their names for different events. Practices went on in full swing. Students who did not participate in any events, got other duties such as making relevant charts, making lists of games and participants etc.

Annual sports competition of Sachin Deb Barman Memorial Govt. Music College has been organized on 2nd September 2022 on college ground.

Three types of sports were organized in the competition among students as well as among faculty members and other staff.
